1. ☐ Orientation: What You're Actually Doing

Gnostic practice is not belief-based. It is experiential, aimed at awakening the Sophia-spark within you.

From your document:

From external sources:

Gnostic meditation is “awakening to Gnosis—direct knowing of your divine nature through the guidance of Sophia.” Your goal:

- Shift identity from the archon-conditioned personality → to the inner light
- Re-establish connection with Sophia
- Learn to navigate planetary influences consciously
- Build the Five Seals over time

2. ☐ Daily Core Practice (20–30 minutes)

A. Heart-Center Invocation (5 minutes) This is the anchor of all Gnostic work.

1. Sit upright, eyes open or half-open.
2. Place attention in the center of the chest.
3. Speak inwardly:
“Sophia, I remember.”
4. Sense warmth, light, or subtle presence.

Your document:

External source:

Gnostic meditation begins by “calling on Sophia... receiving her transmission.”

B. Standing Prayer (3–5 minutes)

1. Stand with arms raised.
2. Observe the body as if it is not “you.”
3. Let thoughts pass without ownership.

Your document:

Purpose: break archonic identification with the physical form.

C. Thought-Observation (5 minutes)

1. Sit comfortably.
2. Watch thoughts arise.
3. Label them gently:
 - “archonic fear”
 - “archonic desire”
 - “archonic impulse”
 - “my true voice” Your document:

This is the single most important beginner skill.

D. Sophia-Guided Meditation (10 minutes)

Adapted from external Gnostic meditation sources:

- Visualize Sophia as light descending into your heart.
Visualize Christ/Logos rising to meet her.
- Let them unite in the heart (the Bridal Chamber).

- Rest in the feeling of fullness (Pleroma).

This aligns with your document's emphasis on:

3. ☐ Weekly Practices 1.

Fasting (1 day per week)

Purpose:

- Loosen archonic influence •

Strengthen pneumatic identity Your document:

2. Conscious Eating (daily) Before

eating:

- Pause
- Recognize food as “condensed light”
- Intend to transform it into pneumatic nourishment

3. Planetary Influence Awareness (weekly review) Your document lists the archonic qualities:

- Saturn → melancholy
- Jupiter → pride
- Mars → aggression
- Sun → vanity
- Venus → desire
- Mercury → cunning
- Moon → instability

Weekly journal prompt:

Which planetary influence dominated me this week?

How did I respond?

Where did I maintain sovereignty?

4. ☐ Monthly Deepening Practices

1. Study Cycle (choose one text per month)

- Apocryphon of John
