

Module 06 — The Archons and Liberation

Module 6 of 8 — Gnostic Practices for Beginners. Complete Modules 1–5 first. Enrol at veilcartography.org

Module 6 — The Archons and Liberation

What you will gain from this module:

- Identify the Archons as psychological and spiritual patterns
- Apply Gnostic recognition practice to daily thought patterns
- Formulate a personal strategy for moving beyond limiting beliefs
- Complete your Archon Inventory

Duration: 2.5 hours · 3 lessons + 1 workbook session

Price: £4.99 · Available at veilcartography.org

Lesson 6.1 — What Are the Archons? (30 min)

The word Archon comes from the Greek meaning ruler or prince. In the Gnostic cosmology, the Archons are the seven planetary rulers created by the Demiurge to govern the material world. They are the administrators of the cosmic prison — the forces that maintain the structures of the material realm and, crucially, keep the divine spark within human beings asleep and unaware of its true nature.

The seven Archons correspond to the seven classical planets (Saturn, Jupiter, Mars, Sun, Venus, Mercury, Moon) and to seven fundamental psychological patterns:

Archon	Planet	Psychological Pattern
Yaldabaoth	Saturn	Ignorance — the belief that the material world is all there is
Eloaios	Jupiter	Pride — the inflation of the ego, the need to be right
Astaphaios	Mars	Anger — reactive force, the impulse to destroy what threatens the ego
Iao	Sun	Envy — the sense that others have what you lack
Sabaoth	Venus	Greed — the compulsion to acquire, to possess, to hold
Adonin	Mercury	Fear — the fundamental anxiety of the separated self
Sabbataios	Moon	Attachment — the clinging to what is familiar, even when it causes suffering

These are not external demons. They are internal patterns — the automatic, unconscious responses that keep human beings reactive, contracted, and identified with the material world rather than with the divine spark within.

Lesson 6.2 — Escaping the Illusion (30 min)

The Gnostic concept of liberation begins with a single act: recognition — the Greek epinoia, meaning after-thought or reflection. To recognise an Archonic pattern is to see it clearly, from a position of awareness that is not identified with it.

The counterfeit spirit:

The Apocryphon of John describes a counterfeit spirit — a false self constructed by the Archons — that overlays the divine spark and convinces the human being that it is the real self. This counterfeit spirit is what we ordinarily call the ego: the collection of conditioned responses, beliefs, fears, and desires that we mistake for our identity.

The counterfeit spirit is not evil. It is simply a case of mistaken identity. The Gnostic path is the process of seeing through this mistaken identity — not by destroying the ego, but by recognising that you are not it.

How recognition works:

When an Archonic pattern arises — fear, anger, attachment — the ordinary response is to be swept up in it, to act from it, to believe it is the truth of the situation. Recognition is the moment you step back and see the pattern as a pattern rather than as reality.

This does not require years of practice. It requires a single moment of genuine awareness. The pattern loses its grip the instant it is clearly seen. This is what the Gnostics meant by liberation: not a future state, but a present moment of seeing clearly.

Lesson 6.3 — The Ascent of the Soul (30 min)

The Gnostic texts describe the soul's journey after death as an ascent through the seven planetary spheres, each governed by an Archon. At each gate, the soul must give a password — a recognition, an acknowledgement of the Archon's nature — in order to pass through.

This is not literally about death. It is a map of the inner journey of liberation during life. Each Archon represents a layer of conditioning that must be recognised and passed through on the way to the Pleroma — the divine fullness.

The passwords are acts of recognition: "I know what you are. You are not my master. I pass through you."

Applied to daily life, this means: when fear arises, recognise it as the Archon of fear. Do not fight it, do not suppress it, do not act from it. Simply see it clearly and continue. This is the practice of ascent — not a dramatic mystical experience, but the daily, patient work of recognising what is not you.

Workbook 6 — Archon Inventory

Exercise 1 — Name Your Archons

Identify your three most active Archonic patterns — the ones that most frequently interrupt your peace, your clarity, or your sense of self.

Archonic Pattern	How it shows up in my life	A recent example
1.
2.
3.

Exercise 2 — Daily Recognition Log (7 days)

Each evening, note one moment during the day when you recognised an Archonic pattern arising — and what happened when you recognised it.

Day	Pattern that arose	What I noticed when I recognised it
1
2
3
4
5
6
7

Exercise 3 — Liberation Affirmations

Write three affirmations — statements of recognition — for your three most active Archons. Format: "I see [pattern]. It is not me. I pass through."

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Module 6 Self-Check

- ☐ I can name the seven Archons and their psychological patterns
- ☐ I understand what recognition (epinoia) means in practice
- ☐ I have completed my Archon Inventory
- ☐ I have written my three liberation affirmations

Next: Module 7 — Rituals and Daily Practice. Available at veilcartography.org

Veil Cartography · veilcartography.org · @veilcartography · © 2026