

How to Use Your AI Onboarding Map - Quick Start Guide

What This Is

A 5-minute tool that helps you discover which AI tools will actually help with your biggest frustrations. No tech knowledge needed. No judgment.

3 Easy Steps

Step 1: Open the File

1. Look for the file called `busy_mum_ai_intake.html`
2. Double-click it
3. It opens in your web browser (like Chrome, Safari, Edge, or Firefox)
4. You'll see a form asking about your day

Step 2: Fill It In (5 minutes)

Fill out each section honestly. There are no wrong answers.

- "What apps do you use daily?" → Type the apps you actually use (Gmail, Alexa, Maps, etc.) and click "Add" for each one
- "How comfortable are you with technology?" → Click the one that feels true. No labels. Just pick.
- "What takes up most of your time?" → Your biggest frustration. Email? Meal planning? Managing the teen's schedule? Organizing bills?
- "What hobby do you miss?" → What would make you happy? Painting? Reading? Time with friends?
- "Your ideal outcome" → Describe your dream week. Be greedy. What would need to change to make you less frazzled?
- "How do you like to learn new things?" → Just try it? Quick explanation? Want to understand how it works?

Tip: Use the 🗣️ Voice button if you'd rather speak than type. Talk naturally. Don't worry about perfect sentences.

Step 3: Generate Your Playbook

Click the green "🌟 Generate My Playbook" button.

Two Scenarios:

Scenario A: If You Have an API Key

(Your AI person gave you one, or you got one from Google AI Studio)

- Click the  settings icon in the top right
- Paste your API key
- Click "Generate My Playbook" again
- Wait 30 seconds
- Your personalized AI playbook appears

Scenario B: If You Don't Have an API Key

- The app gives you a prompt to copy
 - Go to Google Gemini or ChatGPT (both free)
 - Paste the prompt
 - Copy the AI's response
 - Paste it back into the app
 - Your playbook appears

What Happens Next

You'll see:

- 2-3 specific AI tools that match your life
 - How each tool helps you (in plain English, no tech jargon)
 - One quick-win experiment to try today (takes 10 minutes)

Sending It to Me

Once you have your playbook:

1. Click "  Copy Playbook" (copies it to your clipboard)
 2. Email it to me, or
 3. Click "  Download" and attach the file to an email

Questions While You're Using It?

- "Can I change my answers?" → Yes! Just fill in the form again and click Generate.
 - "Can I use voice instead of typing?" → Yes! Click the  Voice button.
 - "Do I need to understand how AI works?" → No. Just answer the questions honestly.
 - "Is my data safe?" → Yes. Everything stays on your device. Nothing is sent anywhere.

You've Got This

There's no pressure. No perfect answers. Just honest answers about your life.

Once you send me your playbook, I'll turn it into 2–3 specific AI tools tailored exactly to your situation.

Let's give you back your time.
